

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF RED BULL BC ONE WORLD FINAL EVENT
GDAŃSK, HALA ERGO ARENA, NOVEMBER 6, 2021

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. These regulations (hereinafter referred to as: "Regulations") were issued on the basis of the provisions of the Act of March 20, 2009 on the safety of mass events , uniform text: Journal Of Laws of 2019, item 2171 as amended amended, (hereinafter referred to as: the "Act") and other regulations, the provisions of which have a direct impact on the organization of the Event and its course, in particular the provisions introduced in the Republic of Poland in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic, including the Regulation of the Council of Ministers of May 6, 2021 on the establishment of certain restrictions, orders and bans in connection with the epidemic (Journal of Laws of 2021, item 861, as amended). The regulations are issued by the organizer of the event under the name: RED BULL BC ONE, which will be held on November 6 (Saturday) in Gdańsk (ERGO Arena Hall, Dwóch Miast 1 Square, 80-344 Gdańsk), hereinafter referred to as the "Event").

The organizer of the Event is Live Spółka z ograniczoną odpowiedzialnością, with its registered office in Gdańsk (Piaستowska 67 Street, 80-363 Gdańsk) entered into the register of entrepreneurs of the State Court Register under the KRS number 0000469064, the documentation of which is kept by the District Court Gdańsk-Północ in Gdańsk (hereinafter referred to as the "Organizer"), acting for and on behalf of Red Bull Polska Sp. z o. o.

2. The Regulations are addressed to all persons who will be at the Event Venue during the Event. Each person staying at the Event Venue during the Event is obliged to comply with the provisions of the Regulations.
3. The following terms used in the Regulations will have the following meaning:
 - a. "Event Venue" means a fenced-off area, located inside the ERGO Arena hall, where it is carried out. The Event Area will be divided into sectors, access to which will be specified by the Organizer in the Regulations;
 - b. "Ticket" means the original, individual consent to enter the Event Venue - in the appropriate sector provided for the public. At the first entry to the Event Venue, the Ticket will be marked in the electronic system, which will allow to determine that the Ticket has been used to enter the Event Venue and will prevent another third party from reusing this Ticket to enter the Event Venue;
 - c. "Event Participant" means a person participating in the Event on the basis of a valid Ticket, invitation or identifier issued by the Organizer. The Participant of the Event may be:
 - an adult,
 - a minor who is under 16 years of age only under the care of a statutory representative or other authorized adult, and under their sole responsibility, after the guardian signs a declaration regarding the participation of the minor in the Event, at the latest before entering the Event and bearing full responsibility (including material responsibility) for the above-mentioned minor,
 - a minor who is 16 years old but under the age of 18 only after their legal representative or other authorized guardian has signed, at the latest before entering the Event, a declaration regarding the participation of a minor in the Event and taking full responsibility.

II. TICKET SALE

1. Tickets are only sold online at www.ebilet.pl.
2. Tickets are personal. A personal Ticket entitles only the person whose name and surname is indicated on the Ticket to enter.
3. One person may purchase a maximum of five Tickets. The Organizer reserves the right to cancel Tickets purchased above this limit.
4. The person purchasing Tickets for other people is obliged to provide their first and last name when making the purchase.
5. The Organizer allows the possibility of changing the personal data on the named ticket for a fee of PLN 20 per one ticket, plus the delivery costs of the new ticket. In order to submit an application for a change, please visit www.sklep.ebilet.pl/changetickets with the ticket number, name, surname, e-mail address and telephone number of the order owner.
6. Changing the data on the Ticket is possible only once. Only the owner of the reservation can request a change.
7. In the event of changing the data on the tickets, the holder has the option to replace the home ticket and re-select the delivery method, i.e. a home or collector ticket sent by post or courier for an additional fee. The change of data is possible until 23:59 November 3rd 2021. In case of home tickets that may not get to the buyer address on time, there is a possibility to collect the ticket with new data at the event site.
8. Changes to the data on the Tickets will not be made at the venue of the Event on the day of the Event.
9. It is not possible to change the data on Tickets purchased through unofficial distribution channels other than those indicated in section 2, in particular social networks, auction portals and services dealing with the resale of tickets.
10. Tickets may only be sold at the price printed on the Ticket. It is forbidden to resell Tickets at a price higher than the one printed on the Ticket. It is forbidden to resell Tickets at auctions, competitions, promotional campaigns, lotteries, commercial resale outside authorized points of sale, etc.
11. The Organizer informs that in accordance with Article 133 of the Act of May 20, 1971 The Code of Offenses: "Whoever purchases tickets for artistic, entertainment or sports events for the purpose of profitable resale or who sells such tickets at a profit, shall be punishable by detention, restriction of liberty or a fine. Attempting, incitement and abetting are punishable by a penalty".
12. Destruction of the Ticket invalidates it and loses the right to enter the Event Venue.
13. The ticket giving an authorization to enter must be original, purchased in accordance with the provisions of the Regulations. A ticket purchased in breach of the provisions of the Regulations may be canceled by the Organizer, without the right to refund for its purchase. tickets from outsiders carries risks ticket purchase counterfeit, with the consequent denial of access and participation in the Event.

III. ORGANIZATIONAL AND ORDINAL PRINCIPLES APPLICABLE DURING THE EVENT

1. Organizer will set the zone to which access will be limited or available only for guests and staff of the Organizer. Places not for public are in particular: stage back-up, production area, artists' dressing rooms as well as technical and organizational rooms.
2. The organizer ensures the safety and order of people present at the Event during the Event, including:

- a. Security and Information Services dressed in distinctive elements of clothing;
 - b. appointing a security manager, managing the Security and Information Services and organizing the work of security services;
 - c. providing medical assistance and hygienic and sanitary facilities;
 - d. designation of evacuation routes and roads that are enabling access for vehicles of emergency services and the Police;
 - e. ensuring the conditions to organize communication between entities involved in securing the Event;
 - f. providing rescue and firefighting equipment as well as extinguishing agents necessary to secure the Event in the field of rescue and firefighting activities.
3. The Participants of the Event and all other persons who are on the Event Venue are obliged to follow the instructions of the Security and Information Services. Refusal to comply with these instructions may only be due to their inconsistency with generally applicable laws. Minors are only participating in the Event under the sole responsibility of the persons who supervise them.
 4. The organizer, in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic, provides and maintains appropriate hygiene and safety measures, including entering and leaving the Event Venue, as well as in toilets, and provides disinfectants and places information on safety rules in visible places.
 5. Members of the Security and Information Services performing activities as part of the Event are equipped with appropriate personal protective equipment.
 6. Provided it is in accordance with the provisions of the law applicable in the event of an epidemic, introduced on the territory of the Republic of Poland, in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic, the Organizer may decide to deploy catering outlets on the premises of the Event in separate food zones.
 7. Participants of the Event and all other people who are at the Event Venue are obliged to behave in a way that does not threaten the safety of other people present at the Event, and in particular to comply with the provisions of the Regulations. It is forbidden to destroy greenery, litter the area, destroy signs and information boards, advertising media, devices and equipment located at the Event Venue, etc. Participants are obliged to use sanitary rooms only in accordance with their intended use.
 8. All persons at the Event Venue are required to have a valid Ticket and the identity document indicated in the Regulations.
 9. It is forbidden to bring and possess during the Event:
 - a. weapons or other dangerous items,
 - b. explosives,
 - c. pyrotechnic products,
 - d. fire-hazardous materials,
 - e. alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, unless they have been purchased in catering zones on the Event premises, and bringing them to the Event Venue is permitted by the Act,
 - f. food, unless it was purchased in the catering zones on the Event Venue, and bringing it to the Event Venue is permitted by the Act,
 - g. umbrellas with a skewer,
 - h. drones,
 - i. laser pointers,
 - j. narcotic drugs or psychotropic substances,
 - k. professional cameras and video cameras (it is only allowed to bring cameras in mobile phones - no limitation in the number of megapixels), compact cameras (a typical compact camera which is equipped with non-removable lens, fixed or zoom lens), and GoPro cameras (no extra lenses and accessories).

10. It is also forbidden to:
 - a. Bring dogs and other animals to the Event Venue, except for dogs assisting the disabled, after meeting the conditions set out in the Act of 27 August 1997 on vocational and social rehabilitation, and employment of disabled people (i.e. Journal of Laws of 2021 item 573, as amended), in particular on the condition that the assistance dog is equipped with a harness and that the disabled person has a certificate confirming the status of an assistance dog and a certificate confirming that the required veterinary vaccinations have been performed,
 - b. conducting any commercial or other activity without the Organizer's authorization on the Event Venue,
 - c. using drones in the Event Venue and over the Event Venue,
 - d. drinking alcohol in places not intended for this purpose and not designated by the Organizer,
 - e. climbing the elements of construction and technical infrastructure, as well as areas that are not intended for the Participants of the Event,
 - f. terracing and blocking exits and escape routes, access roads for rescue services, hydrants and other devices necessary in the event of a rescue or firefighting operation during the Event,
 - g. throwing objects,
 - h. starting a fire,
 - i. using vulgar and offensive vocabulary, violating good manners and offending any person or institution.
11. The Organizer, to the extent specified by the Act and executive regulations, is entitled to record the course of the Event, in particular the behavior of people, using video and sound recording devices. Materials collected during the recording of the Event, which may constitute evidence allowing for the initiation of criminal proceedings or proceedings in cases of offenses, or evidence relevant to pending proceedings, which the Organizer immediately submits to the district prosecutor competent for the Event Venue or the Police. The materials collected during the recording of the Event, which do not contain evidence allowing the initiation of criminal proceedings or proceedings in cases of offenses or evidence relevant to pending proceedings, are stored after the end of the Event for a period of at least one month, but no longer than 90 days, and then are subjected to a commission destruction.
12. Security and Information Services, possessing an identifier placed in a prominent position, are entitled, in accordance with the provisions of the Act, to:
 - a. checking and establishing entitlements of persons to participate in the Event, in particular referred to in Chapter IV, paragraph. 1 and sec. 2, and in the event of lack of such rights - refusal to enter the Event Venue or call them to leave the Event;
 - b. identification of persons in order to establish their identity,
 - c. viewing the contents of luggage and clothing items of persons, in case of suspicion that these persons are bringing in or are in possession of the items referred to in Chapter III sec. 9 of the Regulations,
 - d. Issuing orders to persons disturbing public order or behaving contrary to the Regulations, and in the event of failure to comply with these instructions - asking them to leave the Event;
 - e. capture, for the purpose of immediate transfer to the Police, persons posing a direct threat to the goods entrusted for protection and persons committing prohibited acts;

- f. use of direct coercive measures in the cases specified in art. 20 paragraph 2 of the Act.
13. Security and Information Services are obliged to remove from the Event Venue persons who disrupt public order or behave inconsistently with the Regulations, as well as persons referred to in Chapter IV sec, 3 lit. a - c of the Regulations.
 14. A member of the Security and Information Services determines the right of a person to be at the Event by:
 - a. Checking whether the person has a valid Ticket, invitation, identification,
 - b. Comparing the presented identity document with the data specified in the Ticket.
 15. If it is found that the contents of the checked luggage or clothing items are forbidden to bring and possess at the Event, a member of the Security and Information Services refuses to admit the person who has been found to have such items or removes them from the Event Venue. Security and Information Services will refuse access to the Event of persons referred to in chapter IV sec. 3 lit. a - j of the Regulations.
 16. Persons who - in accordance with the Regulations or the Act - were refused entry or stay at the Event, are not entitled to a refund for the Ticket, or other claims against the Organizer or other entities cooperating in the organization of the Event.
 17. The organizer does not run a depository point.
 18. The organizer ensures fire safety in accordance with applicable law.
 19. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, and in particular the epidemic situation introduced in the territory of the Republic of Poland:
 - a) participation in the Event is forbidden to:
 - a person suffering from COVID-19 or showing symptoms of SARS-CoV-2 infection, including, for example: temperature above 37.5 degrees Celsius, cough, shortness of breath, muscle aches, sore throat, diarrhea, abdominal pain, vomiting, deterioration of taste or smell,
 - persons staying in quarantine or isolation at home, as well as under epidemiological supervision due to COVID - 19;
 - b) each Participant of the Event is obliged to:
 - comply with the epidemic safety rules and conditions specified in the Regulations and in applicable law, valid as of the date of the Event,
 - disinfection of hands at the entrance to the Event Venue (disinfection agents are provided by the Organizer),
 - if required by the provisions of the law that will be in force on the date of the Event - to cover the mouth and nose throughout the stay at the Event Venue, as well as before entering the Event Venue - the Event Participant is obliged to equip himself on his own and at his own expense with the above-mentioned personal protection materials,
 - comply with the obligation to maintain a sufficient distance from other people staying at the Event Venue (as of the date of the Regulations entry into force, it is 1.5 meters), in particular in the case of queues, including entering and exiting the Event Venue, as well as complying with the designated places for the public at the Event Venue, with the provision that this obligation does not apply to wishes to keep a distance between the Participant of the Event and a child under 13 years of age staying with him or with a person with a disability certificate, a person with a disability degree certificate, a person with a special education certificate or a person who, due to his health condition, cannot move on their own, as well as people living together,
 - in the event of COVID-19 symptoms during the Event - immediately inform the Security and Information Services about it and leave the Event Venue.
 20. Information on the obligations of the Event Participants in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic, valid as of the date of the Event, to which each Participant should apply, will be placed on the boards before entering the Event Venue and at the Event Venue. The Organizer has the right to refuse entry to the Event and to remove from the Event Venue Participants who do not comply with the above-mentioned rules of conduct, without the right to make complaints and other claims against the Organizer or entities cooperating with him in the organization of the Event.

21. The Participant of the Event acknowledges that participation in the Event is associated with the risk of falling ill with COVID-19 and releases the Organizer from any liability in this regard.
22. The Organizer informs that in the event of suspicion of infection with the SARS-CoV-2 virus in a given Participant of the Event, the Organizer is entitled to notify the Chief Sanitary Inspector of this fact and provide him with the personal data of the Participant of the Event.

IV. ENTRY TO THE EVENT AREA

1. Entry to the Event Venue is granted only to a person who has a Ticket, which will be marked in the electronic system when entering the Event Venue for the first time, which will determine that the Ticket has been used to enter the Event Venue and will prevent another third party from reusing it in the purpose of entering the Event Venue. Each of the participants of the Event is obliged to keep the Ticket at all times during their stay at the Event Venue. In addition, upon entering the Event Venue, the identity of the person holding the Ticket will be verified. Verification will take place on the basis of a photo ID. In the event of a discrepancy between the data on the Ticket and the data on the ID document, such a person is not entitled to enter the Event Venue and the right to a refund for the purchase of the Ticket.
2. When entering the Event Venue:
 - a) the Ticket holder for people with a Certificate is obliged to present the Certificate in paper or electronic form, i.e. QR code, generated under the EU Digital Covid Certificate, the authenticity of which will be verified by the Security and Information Services with the help of the appropriate application. The above requirement does not apply to minors who are under 12 years of age, but it applies to all minors from 12 years of age and adults. In the event of refusal to present the Certificate, negative verification of the Certificate, lack of the Certificate or non-compliance of the data indicated in the content of the Certificate with the data on the presented identity document, such person is not entitled to enter the Event Venue and to the right for a refund of the purchased Ticket;
 - b) the holder of a Ticket for people without a Certificate is obliged to complete and provide the Security and Information Services with a completed written Statement in connection with the state of the COVID-19 epidemic. A sample of the Statement is available on the website of the Event, which sells Tickets for the Event, at www.ebilet.pl, and is also attached as Annex 1 to the Regulations. In the case of minors, the Statement, constituting Appendix 2 to the Regulations, is completed and signed by their statutory representative or legal guardian.
3. Regardless of the fulfillment of the conditions set out in sec. 1 and sec. 2, entry to the Event Venue is not entitled to the following persons:
 - a. against whom a decision prohibiting the entry to mass event has been issued;
 - b. obliging to refrain from staying in places where mass events are held, issued by the court against the convicted person in connection with the conditional suspension of the execution of the penalty of deprivation of liberty or against a minor pursuant to Art. 6 point 2 of the Act of October 26, 1982 on juvenile delinquency proceedings;

- c. a person against whom a foreign ban has been issued;
 - d. a person who refuses to submit to the activities referred to in Chapter 11, sec. 12 lit. a - c of the Regulations,
 - e. under the visible influence of alcohol, intoxicants, psychotropic substances or other similarly acting substances,
 - f. possessing weapons or other objects, materials, products, drinks, agents or substances referred to in Chapter III, section 9 of the Regulations,
 - g. behaving aggressively, provocatively, dishonestly or otherwise posing a threat to public safety or order,
 - h. a person suffering from COVID-19 or showing symptoms of SARS-CoV-2 infection, including, for example: temperature above 37,5 degrees Celsius, cough, shortness of breath, muscle aches, sore throat, diarrhea, abdominal pain, vomiting, deterioration of taste or smell,
 - i. persons in quarantine or isolation at home, as well as under epidemiological supervision due to COVID-19
 - j. fail to comply with the regulations placed due to COVID-19 pandemic.
4. The Organizer of the Event may refuse the entry to the Event and to stay at the Event to persons:
- a. who do not have a Ticket,
 - b. in dangerous clothing (e.g. shoes with metal endings),
 - c. having whistles, trumpets and other noisy gadgets,
 - d. whose external appearance makes it impossible to identify,
 - e. having plastic or glass containers, cans, etc.,
 - f. having other dangerous items,
 - g. not having an identity document (ID card, driving license or passport),
 - h. not having the documents referred to in chapter III paragraph 6 lit. a - c of the Regulations.
- The evaluation of objects as dangerous belongs to the Security and Information Services.
5. Entry to the Event Venue is available to persons who have a Ticket and after fulfilling the conditions specified in the Regulations, in particular in Chapter IV sec. 2. Leaving the Event Venue by a person during its duration means that the person loses the right to re-enter the Event Venue, unless, before leaving the Event Venue, he reports to the Security and Information Services in order to obtain an appropriate certificate that he is leaving the Event Venue with intention to return. The certificate may be issued in the form of a document or other mark (e.g. a stamp), which will be issued to the participant by the Security and Information Services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, return to the Event Venue is possible only for persons holding a Ticket.
6. Entry to the area of the Event may be obtained by a person who is 18 years of age on the day of the Event. Subject to Chapter I para. 3 lit. c, Minors may enter the Event Venue if they have the following documents with them:
- a. their own photo ID (which may also be a school ID),
 - b. a photocopy of the parent's ID card (ID card, driving license or passport),
 - c. signed consent of the parent for the participation of the child in the Event and the declaration of the statutory representative or a person authorized by him on bearing full responsibility (including material) for the above-mentioned minor.
7. The Organizer reserves the right to rotate admissions due to the safety of the Event participants.

V. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PARTICIPANTS OF THE EVENT

1. The Participant of the Event has the right to:
 - a. stay at the Event Venue during the Event, i.e. from the moment the Event Venue is made available by the Organizer until the end of the Event,
 - b. obtain information about the location of medical, catering and sanitary facilities, amenities and safety requirements specified by the Organizer or emergency services,
 - c. use devices, including hygienic and sanitary facilities and disinfectants, which are available for general use, in a manner consistent with their intended use,
 - d. use medical assistance.
2. The purchased Ticket is not exchangeable or refundable. The Organizer reserves the right to cancel the Event without prior notice. The Organizer will not be obliged to pay any compensation or damages to the Ticket holder apart from the reimbursement of the price printed on the Ticket for the canceled Event.
3. The Organizer reserves the right to make changes in the course of the Event for justified reasons, e.g. Force Majeure, restrictions or limitations related to the COVID-19 pandemic etc., and also the right to change the Event program in terms of artistic and time schedule without prior consultation and compensation.
4. The Participant of the Event or another person staying at the Event Venue may be exposed to constant presence in the zone of sounds that may cause hearing damage. The Participants of the Event take part in it at their own risk. Pregnant women are particularly at risk.
5. The Organizer records the course of the Event for the purposes of documentation and promotion/advertising of the Event, preparation of reportage materials, distribution of music or audiovisual publications and other activities of the Organizer, as well as sponsors of the Event. The image of people present at the Event Venue may be recorded and then disseminated for documentation, reporting, advertising and promotional purposes, to which the Event Participant agrees upon entering the Event Venue. The event will be broadcasted live.

VI. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

1. The Organizer is the administrator of personal data in the form of names and surnames indicated on the Tickets. The processing of this data is necessary for the conclusion and performance of the contract (Article 6 (1) (b) of the GDPR), including participation in the Event (including identity verification at the entrance to the Event) and only for the purpose of its conclusion and performance. They will be kept for the period necessary to perform the contract, and after its expiry - until the expiry of the period of limitation of possible mutual claims of the Parties. Providing the above-mentioned personal data is a contractual condition in order to participate in the Event, and failure to provide them results in the inability to enter the Event.
2. The Organizer is the administrator of the personal data indicated in the Certificate referred to in Chapter IV, sec. 2 lit. a of the Regulations. The processing of this data takes place solely for the purpose of verifying the fact of possessing the Certificate and the data contained therein. The basis for processing in this case is the fulfillment of the legal obligation incumbent on the administrator resulting from the provisions of law (Article 6 (1) (c) of the GDPR), it is also necessary to protect public health (Article 9 (2) (h) of the GDPR and Article 6 (1) (e) of the GDPR), as well as the conclusion and performance of the contract (Article 6 (1) (b) of the GDPR), Providing personal data referred to in the preceding sentences is a contractual condition in order to participate in The event, and failure to provide them will result in the inability to enter the event.

They will be processed only at the entrance to the Event Venue during the verification of the Certificate.

3. The Organizer is the administrator of the personal data indicated in the Declarations referred to in Chapter IV, sec. 2 lit. b of the Regulations. The processing of these data takes place in order to protect public health (Article 9 (2) (h) of the GDPR and Article 6 (1) (e) of the GDPR), in connection with the epidemiological situation caused by COVID-19, in order to prevent, counteracting and combating COVID-19, including informing authorized epidemiological services about the occurrence of an infection or a threat of such infection, and for contact in related matters. Providing the personal data referred to in the preceding sentences is also a contractual condition for participation in the Event (Article 6 (1) (b) of the GDPR), and failure to provide them results in the inability to enter the Event. They will be stored for the period necessary to achieve the above-mentioned purposes, but not longer than 1 month from the time they are obtained.
4. The Organizer is the administrator of personal data of persons submitting complaints to the Organizer in connection with the Event in the form of name and surname and contact details (correspondence address, e-mail address) indicated in the content of the complaint by its author. The processing of the above-mentioned personal data is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the administrator (Article 6 (1) (f) of the GDPR) and is a condition for considering and responding to the complaint. Failure to provide this personal data results in the inability to consider and respond to the complaint. These data will be stored for the period necessary to consider and respond to the complaint, and after that time - until the expiry of the period of limitation of possible mutual claims of the Parties.
5. The organizer is the administrator of the personal data of persons whose image or voice has been recorded:
 - a. In the case described in Chapter III sec. 11 of the Regulations - the basis for the processing of personal data is the fulfillment of the legal obligation incumbent on the administrator resulting from the Act (Article 6 (1) (c) of the GDPR), the personal data in question will be processed only for the purpose specified in Chapter III, paragraph 11 of the Regulations and kept for the period specified therein,
 - b. In the case described in Chapter V, sec. 5 of the Regulations - the basis for the processing of personal data is the consent of the Event Participant (Article 6 (1) (a) of the GDPR), expressed upon entering the Event Venue. Granting consent is voluntary. The personal data in question will be processed only for the purpose set out in Chapter V sec. 5 of the Regulations and stored for the period of use of materials containing personal data for the purposes indicated in Chapter V sec. 5 of the Regulations.
6. The personal data referred to in the preceding paragraphs may be transferred or entrusted for processing entities with which the Organizer cooperates in connection with the Event.
7. The personal data referred to in the preceding paragraphs are not subject to profiling and may be processed within the territory of the European Economic Area, but also outside, but only if the given territory offers a sufficient level of security to protect personal data.
8. Persons whose data is processed by the Organizer as an administrator have the right to request the Organizer to access and rectify their personal data, and in the cases and under the terms of the GDPR also the right to: - request the administrator to delete, limit the processing and transfer of their data personal data, - withdrawal of consent to the processing of data at any time, which does not affect the lawfulness of the processing which was carried out on the basis of consent before its withdrawal, - objecting to the processing of personal data.

9. Persons whose data is processed by the Organizer as the administrator have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory body, which is the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection, ul. Stawki 2, 00-193 16 Warsaw.

VII. COMPLAINTS

1. Any complaints may be submitted in writing no later than 14 days from the end of the Event to the following correspondence address of the Organizer: Live Sp. z o.o. Piastowska 67 Street, 80-363 Gdańsk.
2. The organizer recognizes complaints submitted in accordance with Paragraph 1 within 30 days from the date of their delivery to the Organizer by registered mail.

VIII. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. All rights to the name and logo of the Event are reserved for the Organizer. Official programs and gadgets related to the Event will be sold only at the Event Venue or at points of sale authorized by the Organizer.
2. Official programs and gadgets will be sold only at the Event Venue.
3. The organizer is not responsible for the effects of Force Majeure. Force Majeure is an event beyond the control of the Organizer, which makes the performance of obligations impossible or may be considered impossible due to the existing circumstances. Force Majeure is in particular: weather conditions, breakdowns or disruptions in the operation of devices supplying electricity, heat, light, pandemics or epidemics, including the COVID-19 pandemic, warfare or actions of state or local authorities in the field of policy, laws and regulations that impact on the performance of obligations.
4. The organizer is not responsible for items left at the Event Venue.
5. The status of the Event sponsor is granted only by the Organizer.
6. These Regulations are available:
 - a. on the website <https://www.redbull.com/pl-pl/events/red-bull-bc-one-world-final-gdansk>
 - b. on the website <https://www.ebilet.pl>
 - c. in front of the designated entrances to the Event Venue,
 - d. at the Organizer office: Live Sp. z o.o. Piastowska 67 Street, 80-363 Gdańsk.
7. Correspondence to the Organizer should be sent to the address indicated in Chapter VI section 1 in writing, by registered mail.
8. Security Services may issue their own safety and fire protection instructions in accordance with applicable law.
9. In matters not covered by the Regulations, the provisions of Act 17 and the Civil Code shall apply.
10. The Regulations enter into force on September 6, 2021.
11. The Organizer has the right to amend the Regulations, in particular due to the need to ensure the proper course of the Event and the safety of Event Participants, as well as the requirements resulting from legal provisions introduced in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic.